BREAK AND ENTRY AT SHAMROCK

At 2:15 a.m. on Tuesday, the burglar alarm sounded at the Shamrock Drive-In. Policemen sped to the scene, but found no one on the premises. The offenders had drilled a hole in the rear of the building which enabled them to gain entrance to a back door.

The instruments used in gaining entrance however, struck a wire and caused the alarm to go off, which apparently frightened the burglars away.

Police are still investigating the incident, but at this writing the amount of the loss has not been determined.

More than fifty angry residents of the Lower Main St. section of town descended on Town Hall Thursday evening to offer loud protest to a proposed dump site on the former Blue Hog farm property, now owned by Clarence Spinazola.

Abutters of the property, which hovers an area estimated at over 90 acres, and a number of residents of the surrounding neighborhood, told the Board of Appeals in no uncertain language how they felt about having a sanitary land fill dump in their back yard.

A letter from the Board of Health to the Selectmen two weeks ago asked that the selectmen endorse the proposal and the Board of Health felt "that this is a progressive step—in accordance with better sanitary engineering practices. It is not only a financial saving—but as an equally important measure will rid the town of open dump sites and recover valuable land".

The group at the appeal board hearing did not seem to feel that progress would be best served by a dump in this area. Citing the Winchester dump as a "horrible example" of a sanitary fill dump that is constantly catching fire and causing trouble, and bombarding the members of the health and appeal boards with questions of every phase of operation of the dump, the protestors finally called for a vote to settle the matter. When told that their vote was worthless as this was not a Town Meeting, the group asked that discussion on the matter be closed and that a decision reached on the evidence presented. However, the Board of Appeals continued the hearing until Oct. 17 in order that more information be obtained.

MRS. STANLEY CUMMINGS CHAIRMAN OF TB GROUP

Mrs. Stanley Cummings, 191 Middlesex Avenue, has been named chairman of the 1957-58 Wilmington Tuberculosis committee, announces Allister F. MacDougall, president of the Middlesex Health Association. Other Wilmington members are: Mrs. J. P. Prindle, Mrs. Ernest Anderson, Mrs. Herbert B. Barrows, Miss Ethel Butters, Mrs. David Martin, Mrs. Guy E. Nichols, Mrs. Burt Tilley, Mrs. Frank J. Hagerty, Mrs. Henry G. Hartwell, Mrs. John P. Silvers, Mrs. Robert P. Lyle, Dr. Gaius E. Harmon. In affiliation with the Middlesex Health Association, committee members are active in local programs to prevent and control tuberculosis and to health practices.

During the next months, the Wilmington committee will give their time and efforts to prepare for and publicize the 1957 Christmas Seal Sale. The Seal Sale begins Thursday, November 15, when some 2400 residents in Wilmington receive their Christmas Seals in the mail.

Christmas Seals are the only support of the local TB control programs of this committee and the Middlesex Health Association. Seal Sale dollars make possible: medical research to find new and better methods of diagnosis and treatment, casefinding to discover TB early when treatment is more effective, rehabilitation to help patients resume normal useful activities, health education to increase public awareness of the need for continued TB control measures. Eighty-four cents of every Seal Sale dollar remains in the Middlesex County area for local activities, while the other sixteen cents goes to State and National tuberculosis associations for research, programs and staff services to the local organization.

Newest member of the Board of Health, Gus Walker, was chief spokesman for the Board of Health on the merits of this type of dump operation.

Chairman of the Board of Health, Vinal Lewis, called upon often to defend the approval given to the dump by the Board of Health, said that it would help the town if the "unsightly mess" presently in the proposed dump site was cleaned up.

Former Board of Health member, Selectmen Frank Hagerty, said that it would be a good thing to reclaim the land, and could be done if the regulations were rigidly enforced.

Protesting residents wanted to know how rats could be regulated, and why the old dump was not so regulated. Mr. Lewis explained that the old dump did not come under the jurisdiction of the Board as this one would.

Many of the people present alleged that the owner of the property was operating a gravel pit there now illegally and that "if he can get away with breaking one set of regulations who can say he would not break another?" The question of water brought many comments. Water mains have not been extended to this section of town and water for emergencies is proposed to be obtained from a large crater on the property which the Board of Health maintained had 30 feet of water in it, and which residents claimed there was not enough water to protect them from possible fires. Another point argued was the matter of the brooks running through the property which Stanley Webber claimed were the headwaters of the Ipswich River. Mr. Webber said further investigation should be carried out to see if these waters would be polluted.

Other quotes from the hearing: A Mr. Rooney, "How about testing this dump operation in Rotary Park, another eyesore that needs reclaiming?" After

Mr. Lewis said that broken regulations would mean shutting down the dump, a Mrs. Bertwell said, "I personally will inspect every day and report." "How will you obtain water when the frost is 2 feet in the ground and the water is frozen and covered with snow?" Vinal Lewis stated, "I have a reputation in this town that I have held for 52 years that I wish to uphold. I say the dump will operate properly or close." Mr. Lewis also said, "I will not sign unless a $50,000 bond is posted."

Questions were also asked about the excess from the trenches, and what would happen when the fill was frozen; now odors would be controlled, and why the experiment could not be tried in the old town dump. One resident said, "We have the cat food factory with its smells, the sewerage lines from AVCO going through our end of town, and now they have the colossal nerve to want to put a dump down there."

The proposal that eventually an industrial park would be situated here met with catcalls. Then length of time involved appeared to residents to outweigh the advantages of the eventual proposal.

The air-sea base now being built at Rota, Spain, by the U.S. Navy will be the largest American naval facility in the European-African area.

APPELLATE TAX COURT FINDS FOR TOWN IN 37 OUT OF 39 APPEALS

John D. Cooke, prominent land developer and former member of the Board of Assessors in Wilmington, now a resident of Andover, lost 37 appeals in a hearing before the A.T.B. several days ago.

Cooke submitted 39 applications to the Board of Assessors protesting the valuations placed on these parcels, all of which were denied by the local Board and appealed by Mr. Cooke.

In a hearing lasting most of one day and involving a trip to Wilmington by the court which took a "view" of the contested parcels, the court decided against Mr. Cooke in 37 of his 39 applications. The remaining two were granted a partial abatement.

The town was represented by Mr. Alan Altman and the Principal Assessor. Mr. Cooke, acting pro se, introduced as his expert witness Mr. Albert Malone, prominent local realtor.

Of eight other appeals heard during the same week - 3 were withdrawn by the owners, who did not wish to contest the assessments. Two were dismissed for lack of prosecution, 2 were decided in favor of the town and one received a partial abatement.

Penny Sale At Wilmington Center Pharmacy

The penny will pack plenty of purchase power at Wilmington Center Pharmacy's Rexall drug store next week, according to Mr. Woodside. Starting Monday, October 14th and continuing through Saturday, October 19, customers will have the opportunity of buying two identical Rexall items for the price of one plus a penny more, in the Rexall 1c sale.

A one-hour musical spectacular, "Pinocchio", with an all-star cast is being presented on national television and radio on Sunday, October 13th, publicizing the sale event.

These popular sales were initiated many years ago by the Rexall Drug Company as a means of introducing merchandise to new customers at special low prices. The original sale proved so popular that it has been repeated annually since 1913. Today the One Cent Sale has grown to such national prominence, that it has become an American family event.

Customers will find a wide selection of medicines, baby needs, cosmetics, shaving needs, family and household necessities as well as many other drug store items on sale starting Monday, at two for the price of one plus one cent. In addition to the hundreds of nationally advertised 1c Sale items, special Bonus Buys at reduced prices will be offered during this sale week.

Courtesy Advance Shopping List Booklets will be available, as a special service to shoppers. These booklets may be filled out and left at the store prior to the sale. The merchandise is then reserved for the shopper and may be called for at any time during the sale.

This year's Rexall One Cent Sale is being widely advertised in newspapers, magazines, radio and television.

Plans are for Junior High youth to meet from 7 to 9 p.m. and for Senior High youth to have the time from 9 to 11 p.m. The youth wish to express their thanks to Mr. Rodney Laughton, for his gift of juke box to the young people for their Friday evening canteen, and to their counsellors, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Pelletier, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur MacMelville, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank McLean for their time to the Junior High Youth, and to Mr. Paul Rodenstien, Miss Shirley Sutton and Mr. George Wilson, for their time with the Senior High Young people.

The members and friends of the church who will share in this service invite any interested person or persons of the community to attend.

A singaspiration will precede Mr. Johnson's presentation at which two great hymns of the church will be sung. A Youth choir, which sang for the candlelight communion service, will again provide special music. Miss Judy Cardner is organist for these evening services during the month of October.

The Rev. Richard Harding has also announced that on Sunday evening, October 20, at 7 p.m. Bishop Newell Booth of the Methodist Church in Africa will be the guest speaker.

FIRESIDE FELLOWSHIP BEGINS SEASON WITH ACTIVE GROUP

The Fireside Fellowship of the Congregational Church has started the year with an active membership of about forty. This group consists of the Senior High School stu-

for an hour and a quarter of worship, business and recreation under the direction of the assistant minister, Mr.
Donald Tibbetts.

The acceptance of their proposed program for the winter has been marked by great enthusiasm. One of the first events will be the annual observance of the Workday for Christ, which comes this week on Saturday, Columbus Day, and the proceeds of which will be their contributions to missions. All day long the members will be available for odd jobs at the homes of the parish,
such as taking off screens, puttings on storm windows, washing cars, raking leaves,
etc. They will also be avail-

HEALTH FOR ALL

A Personal Problem:

Tuberculosis is a public health problem. As a contagious disease, measures for its control are a part of the health department. The care of patients is a public responsibility and is paid for by taxes. Doctors are required by law to report cases they discover.

Federal, state, and local health officials, private physicians, and the voluntary tuberculosis associations have been cooperating for many years in the fight against this disease. Yet in the final analysis, the control of tuberculosis is a personal problem. This is the paradox of tuberculosis.

If the disease could be prevented by purely public health measures such as spraying and draining marshes, by compulsory isolation or vaccination, the individual could pay his taxes and forget about TB. Unfortunately, no simple measure has yet been discovered that will prevent the spread of the disease. Progress has been made in discovering cases and getting them under treatment promptly. However, there remains a reservoir of undiscovered cases spreading the disease in every community, and an even larger reservoir of infected persons who are potential victims of tuberculosis.

A vaccine of limited effectiveness (BCG) is available, but is not advocated for general use. Until such time as an effective vaccine or other preventative is discovered, it will be up to the individual to protect himself from TB. This means you and me.

Poor general health lowers resistance to TB germs. So each of us must guard his personal health. The rules of good health we learned in school haven't changed: cleanliness, sleep, proper food, fresh air, and exercise. If we follow the rules we have a good chance of defeating any TB germs that attack us. Another important personal step we can take against TB is to have a regular physical check-up and a chest X-ray. If TB is discovered early, there's every chance that it will be cured.

People have TB. People spread TB. People must fight TB, personally.

"Bored To Death"

How many times have you said it: "I'm bored to death." Stop a minute. It could come true.

A medical expert on aging recently said that by conquering two problems—boredom and overeating—we could live to a hundred.

As a matter of fact, these two villains that are shortening man's life may be more closely related than they seem. What do you do when you're bored? Raid the refrigerator? Drop into the drugstore for a sundae? Rich, sweet food is emotionally satisfying. And is our prosperous society most of us can afford too much of it. As we get older, vanity—keeping a slim figure, doesn't stop us. We feel we can eat as we please, and we usually "please" to eat fattening foods. It's rather sad to think of a piece of devil's food cake becoming the high point of anyone's day. It couldn't happen to you. Or could it?

Retirement is the beginning of boredom for many men. Their lives have centered on their jobs for so long that they are lost without them. They feel no motive for living.

So called retirement comes more slowly to women, and affects them less drastically. They change their pattern of living gradually as the children grow up and leave home. They take on interesting hobbies, clubs, activities in the community as free time increases. And, of course, a woman is never without a "job" as long as she has her home and husband to care for and grandchildren to fuss over. Incidentally, the death rate of women aged 65 to 69 is only 2.5, while that of men is in the same age group is 4.2.

There may be a clue here for men who don't want to have their lives shortened by boredom. Perhaps they can plan a gradual change from the "job-centered" life, begin to expand and extend their interests so that on the day of "retirement" they don't just stop. They can move forward with positive energy that will keep them interested and alive right up to the century mark.

"The toughest part of putting something away for a rainy day is finding a clear day to do it."

Exercises for Shapely Legs

EXERCISES for shapely legs are demonstrated by pretty Lyla Moran as prescribed by Jack Doyle, leg expert for new lanolized hosiery. (A) Holding to chair, kick leg straight out with knee straight as far out as possible from hip; (B) Lyla demonstrates "squabble," master walking forward then backwards, good for firming thighs; (C) Raise foot straight with knee straight, relieves tension, reduces puffiness and creates better contour; (D) For ankles, calves and thighs, with one leg on floor, kick other vigorously; (E) Rotate legs briskly bending knee way down, according to Doyle who advises that new lanolized nylons favor contour of the leg while its soft texture prevents irritation.

RESEARCH OUR RICHEST RESOURCE

This will be the theme of the Commonwealth's exhibit at the 1957 Trade Fair of the Atomic Industry to be held in the New York Coliseum October 28-31.

The exhibit, co-sponsored by the Massachusetts Department of Commerce and the Commission on Atomic Energy, will point up Massachusetts' ideal potential as a location for leadership in Nucleonics, Research and Development. This potential will be outlined on the exhibit by using photographs indicating our State's climate of creativity in an area famed for livability.

The Trade Fair will be held in conjunction with the Atomic Industrial Forum, and will be attended by Atomic scientists and engineers from all over the world.

LUXURIOUS FOREIGN CARS TO BE SPOTLIGHTED AT INTERNATIONAL FOREIGN CAR SHOW

BOSTON - Luxurious sleek foreign cars as well as economy vehicles will highlight the International Foreign Car Show in Mechanics Building Oct. 8-13, from 1 to 10:30 p.m.

Some of Europe's most expensive automobiles will be exhibited at this show including the $12,800 Rolls Royce "Silver Cloud," $12,500 XK150 Jaguar convertible, the Jaguar Mark VIII, Mercedes, Ferrari, Porsche, $10,000 Facel Vega, BMW roadster, and the Lotus.

The Rolls Royce, for example, will include automatic transmission, power steering, power brakes, radio, heater, driver-manipulated "ride control" that adjusts springs for rough roads, or heavy loads, and a pedal under the dash that enables the operator to grease some 30 moving parts automatically.

For the busy executive in this car, there's a tape recorder for dictation in the rear arm rest. Available as extras are air-conditioning, rear-seat television and a refreshment cabinet.

One car will have a hi-fi radio which even plays under a bridge or in a tunnel.

These luxurious autos will be among more than 200 exhibited at the show ranging from the most economical to the plushiest models. Foreign cars are becoming increasingly popular as a result of continental styling, ease of handling, economical operation and power.

Included in the display of cars will be Volkswagen, Fiat, Porch, MG, Alpha-Romeo, Borg-Ward, BMW, Jaguar, Scod, Pougeot, Mercedes-Bonz, Nash Metropolitan, Opel, Vauxhall, Citron, Saab, Renault, Dauphine, Simca, Lolyd, Maserati, Ferrari, Morgan, Jomar, Lancia, Elva, Messerschmitt, Volvo, Rover, Hillman, Sunbeam, Humber, Triumph, DKW, Austin Healy, Morris Austin, Ford International and many others.

Two Tons of Fish From Comet Pond:

The reclamation of Comet Pond, Hubbardston, completed last week by the Division of Fisheries and Game, produced nearly two tons of fish, or about 31 pounds of fish to the acre.

The fish removed consisted of 16 different species. As was expected, small fish made up the bulk of the take. In fact, 54 percent of them were yellow perch of which only 900 of nearly 36,000 averaged about eight inches long. Hornpout were no better; they made up 18 percent of the kill, and only about half of them were long enough to be worth skinning. Competition for food among so many different fish had caused this slow growth.

The 31 pounds per acre productivity of Comet was lower than anticipated, but now that the reclamation is complete, it will be all in trout. About 25,000 fingerling trout will be stocked as soon as the water is safe for fish, and 6,500 trout nine to 12 inches long will be released in time for fishing season next year. These fish will grow faster and produce better fishing now that competition for food from other fish has been removed by reclamation.

Average size of large-mouth bass taken from Comet was seven inches, although just one lunker went slightly over eight pounds. There were only 90 large-mouth of legal size in the pond. The largest small-mouth weighed five pounds, and the 75 smallmouths taken averaged only five inches in length. Pickerel made up just one percent of the fish removed, with 47 taken. They averaged six inches in length.

Largest fish collected at Comet was a 12 pound, 29-inch brown trout, but most of the trout were from 10 to 13 inches.

Most of the trout brought in by Division of Fisheries and Game crews, and sportsmen who were aiding the project, had been stocked this spring. A total of 426 trout were killed. Compared to the 53,244 fish of all species collected, this would seem to indicate that the pond was dominated by a multitude of undersized fish. This is exactly the sort of condition found in every pond reclaimed to date, and is just what pond reclamation is designed to correct.

Two surprises were turned up by the reclamation; four eels and 133 smelt were picked up. The presence of both these species was unsuspected by local fishermen.

INCREASES ANNOUNCED BY NEW ENGLAND ELECTRIC SYSTEM

Boston, New England Electric System reports consolidated net income for the first eight months of $8,930,709, an increase of $297,641 over the 1956 period. Net income for the 1957 period was equal to 80 cents a share on the 11,142,649 average common shares outstanding compared to 82 cents a share least year on 10,437,195 average shares.

President Irwin L. Moore in a letter to shareholders accompanying quarterly dividend checks of 25 cents a share said that electric and gas revenues for the first eight months showed increases of about 4.5 per cent over last year.

CONGRESSMAN ROGERS ANNOUNCES EXAMS

The last day for submitting application is January 15. The examination is open to high school seniors or high school graduates who are in good health and interested in careers as commissioned officers in the Coast Guard. Congressman Rogers will mail application forms and complete information to any person interested.

FIRST AGAIN

Massachusetts is outstanding in the vital field of numerical control, says Concord Control Inc., of Boston, now considered one of the four leaders in that field in the U.S. Numerical control is to operate machines and processes automatically, thus bringing greater economies and lower cost per part to non-mass production manufacturing. Numerical control is said to be "releasing man's mind from drudgery just as his muscles have been released in the past." R.W. Lawrie, Concord Control Vice President, states that numerical control is another Massachusetts "first in electronics." The original pioneering work, under U.S. AF sponsorship, at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology resulted in the first numerically controlled milling machine in 1952. By 1958, Mr. Lawrie says, there will be 150 machine tools of various types operating under numerical control in the aircraft industry alone where the need is most pressing.

HEALTH FOR ALL How Much For Health

How much is good health worth to you? If you have it, you don't worry about it. If you don't have it, you'd give every cent to get it. You can't put a price on it. But you do pay for it.

The average American family spends four to five per cent of its yearly income for medical care and related services. All of us together spend more than ten billion dollars for personal health services. That's not counting what the federal, state, and local governments spend. Of course, we spend more than that for recreation, more for alcoholic beverages and tobacco, twice as much to buy and maintain our cars. Four or five per cent doesn't seem too much for health.

But does that mean you can budget five per cent for medical expenses for the coming year, and stick to the budget? We all know better than that. Where is that average American family? A 1953 survey showed that 11 per cent of American families incurred 43 per cent of the national medical bill. Eight per cent had no medical costs whatever that year. Wonder what happened to them in 1954?

We all know that illness inevitably strikes each of us at some time. Even with the wonders of modern medical science good health is not foregone conclusion. We can't take it for granted. Good health is possible only when we take full advantage of what modern science can do for us. Maybe this year you and your family were lucky. Maybe you didn't spend your share of that ten billion dollars. But you don't have to trust to luck.

You can help yourself avoid the heavy medical expenditures that come with serious illness. See your doctor periodically for a check up. Call him in the early stages of illness. Let him help you keep your priceless good health.

Strikes Fence

A vehicle operated by Richard Caldwell of Grove Ave., struck the bridge approach fence at Shawsheen Ave., at approximately 3:00 a.m. on Sunday, October 6. The car was towed to Mr. Caldwell's home by Wilmington Ford Sale's tow car. Caldwell escaped without injury.

Sgt. Sidelinker and Officer Dolan investigated the incident.

COMMUNITY FUND NEEDS YOUR HELP

improvised homes, such as lashing, fire making, tying knots, making candles, weaving and many types of artistic crafts. They are taken on nature walks, are trained in fire making, cooking and prepared for living in the out of doors.

Respect to God, country and others is taught as well as games and songs.

It really is a beautiful sight to watch some 80 or 90 young girls, which was the number of day campers for this year, live and play together for three days a week for three weeks.

How is all this made possible?

Originally from generous civic minded people. A piece of land donated, a craft house built by men in our community, materials supplied by our industries in Wilmington, women who volunteer their services and time and funds contributed by the people of Wilmington to the Community Fund Drive.

Our leaders are trained for this girl scout business by the Lowell Girl Scout Council and what business is more important than training the minds and hands of our future citizens.

Be a part of your Community by giving to the Community Fund Campaign.

No. Wilmington.

A few score years ago, when scientifically prepared, ready-to-use eyedrops were not available, the blue-eyed mountain girls of the Southern Appalachians used juice from the Jimson weed as an eye application. The juice was thought to enlarge the pupil so that only a thin rim of the blue showed. Today the dictionary defines the weed as being "intensely poisonous." Its use definitely is not recommended, say Murine Company researchers.

Many homes would be saved if every family conducted a nightly visual fire inspection just before retiring. It only takes a moment, and the Institute for Safer Living says it may pay off sooner than you think.

Check ash trays for live cigarettes, check the fireplace for live coals, check stoves for burners left on and see that all electrical appliances are off. Do this and you will sleep with more security.

"It is not possible to have just 'a little inflation'. Once the community accepts the prospects of continued inflation, and begins to make its business decisions in the light of that prospect, the infant ceases to creep. It learns to walk, run and finally gallop."

C. Canby Balderston Federal Reserve System

Fire risk increases after a cocktail party in the home, advises the Institute for Safer Living of the American Mutual Liability Insurance Company. Reason, people are inclined to become lax in the proper disposal of matches and cigarettes. Be sure to inspect the premises carefully after party guests have gone.

So you want to make piccalilli?

First, like all things, the most important thing to remember is that the better the ingredients, the better the result.

Here it is:

1 peck green tomatoes	1/2 tbsp. ground cloves
6 large onions	1 tbsp. ground cinnamon
3 green peppers	2 or 3 oz. mustard seed
1 cup salt	1/2 box whole pickling
2 quarts vinegar	spice
2 lbs. sugar	(remove red peppers)

Cut tomatoes in small pieces. Cover with salt. Let stand 12 hours. Drain. Put peppers and onions through food chopper. Tie spices in cheese cloth bag. Mix vinegar and sugar. Combine ingredients. Cook 1 1/2 hours. Store in either stone crock or glass jars. (Do not salt tomatoes in an aluminum container). Has nice amber color.

This makes delicious piccalilli, and will be a delight to your family all through the coming winter when the cold winds blow and the snow is piled high outside.

However there is another recipe that will be even more delightful to you and your family.

Here it is:

1 heating system designed for -10 degrees below zero (steam hot water or warm air)
1 Winkler oil burning furnace or boiler
1 Built in 180 gallon per hour tankless domestic water heater
1 Winkler low pressure oil burner
1 Minneapolis Honeywell round thermostat
1 summer water control
275 gallons Chapin-Nichols premium odorless fuel oil.

Combine all ingredients. Set thermostat at 72 degrees. (Raise or lower as desired.) Produces a nice glow of pure comfort.

This is a delightful recipe which will be an inexhaustible source of comfort for you and your family throughout this coming winter when the cold winds blow and the snow piles up outside, and will continue every winter uninterrupted for the next twenty or twenty five winters.

For either or both recipes please contact us at Reading 2-3290, and we will be glad to have one of our best chefs come to your home and show you how to put the recipe together the first time.

Best regards,

Paul Rimbach

WILMINGTON COMMUNITY FUND NEEDS YOUR HELP

"Forty Acres"

This week we will give the background and hopes for the future of Forty Acres, another organization supported by the Wilmington Community Fund, but first let us say thanks to Jack Pastor and Jack Gordon of Stevens Market, Frank Griffin of the Church Street Hardware store and John Elia of Elia's Country Store in North Wilmington for permission to erect signs on their premises for the Drive.

A piece of land of about forty acres located in North Wilmington on the hill opposite Foster's Pond was donated to the youth of Wilmington by a Mr. Daniels who lives in Tewksbury.

A corporation was formed under the name of Wilmington Junior Camps Inc., with Mr. Philip Buzzell as treasurer and Mr. Higginbotham as President and other interested citizens to serve on the board. Now women Scout Leaders also assist on the Board of Directors.

Over the years groups of people and business house-as well as the Community Fund helped in bringing the camp to its present stage in construction. Tom Marsh of Simplex Wire and Cable, the Bird Co. with shingles, Beta Chi, Lyons Club, H.E. Smith
Pump Co. of Wilmington,
Cronin Bros., Benevento Sand and Gravel, Raffi and Swanson and now J.W.
Greer Co. who is hoping to help in a long range program.

With this impressive list of donors you may say what more do we need? Each business can do a small amount, then there must be a follow up by the Forty Acres organization in planning for more supplies and facilities with cash, also the Community Fund assists the day camp and Wilmington Girl Scouts with the money for supplies which others do not contribute.

The Boy Scouts had 2,000
camping days, the Girl Scouts day camp, YMCA., and sometimes other people like to drop in to the camp which Mr. Hanns of the Department of Commerce said was the "most natural spot in the area".

Mrs. Helwig and other ladies say, the craft house this year was the greatest single improvement so far, so let us try some thing else next year, it is for Wilmington and our children.

The following is a letter written by Mrs. Crowley Concerning Forty Acres:
May We Continue This Program With Your Support

Have you ever watched little girls play house? If you have you must have seen the happiness in their faces.
If you haven't you should take a trip to to "Wilmington Forty Acres" Scout Camp next summer.

It has been my pleasure to be with happy and energetic children for the last few years, working, playing and helping to train them for future similar roles in life.

The first day of camping they pick out a spot for a "home", which is called a unit, planning a kitchen and a living room. They are told how to go about preparing an out-of-door refrigerator, basin wash-up facilities, camp fire area and the essentials for safe and healthful living. From there on, the soil flies, trenches are dug, stones are carried, leaves are raked, water is hailed and their active minds are planning where a work table will be lashed, a clothesline hung and all the necessary chores for setting up housekeeping for the next three weeks.

Special instructions teach them all the things they need to know and show them the different talents to add beauty and comfort to their is to your country, and to yourself.

We need full and complete coverage to assist in the Air Defense coverage in our area.

WILMINGTON FIREMEN'S ASSOCIATION

Thanks To Unknown Coffee-maker:

This week has been another busy one for the department. The woods are so dry that a carelessly tossed cigarette would cause a fire to get underway and burn rapidly. It seemed that we were chasing fires all over town. The woods have been closed by order of the governor and I would again like to warn you of the forest fire danger that exists and impress upon you that there have been no permits issued for burning of any type outdoors.

The men of the department who were fighting the fire up off Glen Rd., in the vicinity of King St., in the rear of Neilsons, would like to thank the unknown gentleman who was so thoughtful as to stay up there until three a.m. making coffee. Hats off to said gentleman. Your kind of citizen is rare and the men really did appreciate your thoughtful gesture. It was rather cool and damp and each one of the men enjoyed a nice hot cup of coffee at three in the morning.

The fire drill sessions under the guidance of Deputy Chief Kane of the Lowell Fire Dept. were brought to a close last Saturday. The men of this association presented him with a token of their appreciation for a job well done. Chief Kane spent many a late hour with us in an endeavor to pass on his knowledge and experience, so as to enable us here in your fire dept. to better cope with any situation that could arise.

The fire situation has slightly improved over the week-end with the rain we have had, but is by no means eased altogether. We still have not had enough rain to penetrate the woods entirely. Therefore, a word of caution in that respect. Fire Prevention Week is with us, but more about that later.

It is with deep regret that we announce that our most capable and popular Senior Vice Commander, John Kenney has tendered his resignation of his office, due to the fact that he is moving to Warren. His work necessitates his making this move, and to say we will miss him is an understatement. John's fine work, especially with the young people, is well known in all quarters. The members of Chapter 116 wish John every success in his new home. We sincerely feel that Warren gains a fine family.

Last weeks meeting was held at the Silver Lake Bet-terment Hall on Main St. A large group was in attendance. In the absence of the King Lion, the meeting was presided over by the vice president, John Murphy.

Plans were discussed for the bulb and broom drive which took place on Sunday when the Lions visited you in your home. In the event you were over-looked and did not get yours, you may still do so by calling Fred Kleyen, or any Lion known to you. A few phone numbers that will bring delivery of these worthwhile items are: OL 8-2501, 8-2602, 8-3648.

These items will be on sale for a week or so for you who did not get them, at the Country Donut Shop in the square. STOP IN AND GET YOURS TODAY.

All members are asked to remember that ticket returns for the annual ball in Andover may be made at Tony's Donut Shop on Main St. The committee requests that you make them right away as there are still some people who want them. If you have any, please return them to Tony so that they may be redistributed. Time is growing short and the ball is only a couple of weeks away. By the way, Mr. and Mrs. Wilmington, have you got yours yet? If not, why not do it now?

I Wonder If:
Pete has had any luck getting his two signs yet; Wes has sold all his Collie pups yet; Donnie's fingers were numb from the pick up session he had the other night; Art got sidetracked after the meeting; Joe App has got the zone affair squared away yet; Any Lion member who has bulbs and brooms will make an effort to sell them; Frankie and Johnny were rited Sunday night.

So much for now and until next week, remember, for the ball of your life, make it the Lions Ball.

Fire loss is not the main threat to property owners, according to Building Science News, published by the Building Research Institute. Loss from corrosion of metals runs more than six times greater. The publication says: "Statistics provided by the National Board of Fire Underwriters show annual property loss due to fire as amounting to roughly $885 million. On the corrosion side, H.H. Uhlig of Massachusetts Institute of Technology Corrosion Laboratory estimated in 1950 that the annual economic and material loss in this country due to corrosion of metals amounted to 5-1/2 billion.

Property loss from termites is minor compared with metal corrosion and fire. The U.S. Forest Products Laboratory has estimated the annual loss caused by wood-destroying insects at $150 million to $200 million.

"Union officials must be restrained from all collusion against the public interest, such as the practice of concentrating on the richest industries to set high wage standards and then using these as a crowbar to pry similar agreements out of smaller and less prosperous industries, where the inflationary effects are more pronounced."

As My Garden Sleeps

By Marl Gold

Even following the light frosts which we have had there are still a few gardens with flowers blooming. I just picked a bouquet of Petunias, one of the hardiest annuals, they will bloom long after a frost has taken most of the other plants.

Another hardy annual is the Calendula, these bright orange flowers may be seen long into November. Each spring I plan to plant a few more of these that I did the previous spring, as I enjoy them so much late in the Fall.

The fall air is so clear that it is possible to see the various types of pollen floating in it, especially the soft white down of the milk weed. The Oak trees are heavily laden with acorns, and the Spruce trees have a lot of cones on them. Old timers used to claim that these are signs of a hard winter ahead. The trees produce heavy so that wild life may use their produce for food.

Now is the time to gather berries, grasses, seed pods and cones for use in your winter decorations. To dry these items, you must hang them upside down. The open milk weed pod can be used in several ways and may be painted just about any color. The cat-n-nine tails may also be painted for decorative purposes. However, with the hot dry summer just past, these things may not be in very good condition now.

There is no magic in preserving foliage, but there are a few rules to follow. Old fashioned "pressing" still has its uses. Some foliage needs less attention and will dry well just standing in holders where there is a free circulation of air.

Brushing foliage on both sides with clear shellac will often preserve it. Ivy Oak and Maple respond well to this treatment. Individual leaves may be dipped into a basin of warm paraffine, lifted onto several thickness of newspapers, covered with more newspaper and pressed with a warm iron. Change papers often until no paraffine comes off with the pressing. These will keep well and can be used for fall decoration.

In spite of the dry weather, our Maple trees are presenting us with such lovely foliage. A few of our trees are turning slowly, so enjoy them if you can as when the rains arrive, the leaves will fall and with the falling of the last colored leaves comes the beginning of the season for spraying to control scale insects.

Lilacs are very susceptible to scale and should be sprayed while they are dormant using miscible oil or commercial lime sulphur. Now is also an excellent time for spraying white pines and other evergreens with nicotine if they are subject to aphids.

Watch Chrysanthemums and other late flower plants for aphids, which blacken the tender new shoots and even devour the flowers. Spray these with nicotine. The time is also right for applying soil conditioners, such as manure and forms of commercial humus. The manure does not have to be well rotted at this time if you are careful to keep it away from plant roots. The freezing and thawing of winter will take a lot of heat out of it before spring growing season begins. Do not use manure on bulbs.

Where time is needed, now is a good time to apply ground limestone for its sweetening effect. Lawn mowing is to be kept up as long as new growth continues to be apparent. The policy not only keeps the turf looking well, but also improves the condition for next year. Long matted grass will harden the fallen leaves and if left on the lawn all winter, will mean trouble in the spring. As the grasses smoothers easily at this time of year.

Shape up trees and shrubs now while foliage is still on them and you can see what they will look like. Dead wood is more easily distinguished now. Hydrangeas should have the dead flowers cut off, but they will benefit from a severe pruning.

Keep an eye on your house plants. Water them at least twice a week. If Begonias look sick, they can be cut back to the top of the pot and will come up with new foliage.

For something green for the kitchen, try some herbs. A plant or two of parsley planted in a pot of good garden soil will do well all winter if kept watered and in a sunny window. This is one herb whose appearance, odor and flower are welcomed all winter. Chives, rose geranium, garden sage and thyme for season can be maintained in this manner.

There is a difference between spices and herbs. Herbs are dried of fresh leaves and are more subtle in flavor than spices. Spices are ripened from bark and seeds of the plants and should be used more sparingly than herbs.

Wilmington Rolls Over Ayer

By Philip Tupper

Wilmington High's football team, led by Billy Rooney, won its first game of the season by beating Ayer 35 to 13. Wilmington got off to a fine start by scoring two quick touchdowns both on long runs by Billy Rooney. Then Ayer broke into the scoring column by marching up the field on short gains, until it had its touchdown. Wilmington scored again on a quarterback sneak by George Munroe after a long run by Rooney and a pass by Munroe. Rooney scored again on a long run. Weed scored the last Wilmington touchdown on a long run around end. All the extra points were kicked by Warren McFeeters, and he tried five of them and got all five. The last Ayer touchdown was scored in the last few minutes of play against the Wilmington substitutes. All of the Wilmington players saw some action in the game.

There were many highlights in the game beside the scoring. There was a blocked kick by Walter Danico which set up a Wilmington touchdown. Rooney besides his three touchdowns had a touchdown and a long run called back because of penalties.

The boys looked good and they should play a good game against Bedford next week.

NEW ENGLAND GAS PRODUCTS TO APPEAL LATEST APPEAL BOARD DECISION

Attorney Simon Cutter, representing the New England Gas Products, Inc., announced this week that the company would appeal the latest decision of the Board of Appeals which denied their request for a variance in the zoning laws to allow for the erection of a plant on their property on lower Main Street, to be used for the manufacture of acetylene and other gas products.

A hearing was held on July 11 after the New England Gas presented new proposals, fourteen in all, dealing with type of plant, building, time of starting new building, disposal of lime residue, and maintenance of the lagoon as well as proposing to post a two million dollars insurance policy.

The decision of the Board of appeals dated Oct. 1, reads:

The Board takes the following action -

We feel that the proposed plant, erected at this location, would cause a greater hazard and nuisance than uses permitted under section III-4 of the zoning laws. We feel this way because of the nearness of a thickly settled residential area and because the proposed plant would be located so near the Maple Meadow Brook, which is the headwater of the Ipswich River, which in turn supplies water for towns and cities further down stream.

We further feel it would not be in the best interest of the Town to have this plant erected at the proposed site.

The Board hereby voted unanimously to refuse the request of the New England Gas Products, Inc., to locate their proposed plant at this location.

The New England Gas Products first bought land in Wilmington under a previous Town Manager at a time when the Town was anxious for new industry. Part of the old Town Farm was voted to be sold to the company at a Town Meeting. The company was given a favorable decision by a previous Board of Appeals in 1952, but did not apply for a building permit until 1957. To further quote the Board of Appeals decision, "In the meantime a new and more stringent set of zoning laws have been established in the Town, when the New England Gas Products, Inc., applied for a building permit they were refused by the building inspector on advice of the Town Counsel, and the Gas Company was referred to the Board of Appeals.

The Board of Appeals subsequently upheld the action taken by the building inspector following advice of the Planning Board, which is required under the present set of zoning laws, that stated the proposed N.E. Gas Products, Inc., plant as being contrary to the best interests of the Town of Wilmington.

In its decision, the Board of Appeals found that the proposed plant was not permitted under Section III-4 of the zoning laws, and therefore their request was denied.

On receipt of this decision, the New England Gas Products, Inc., appealed to the Middlesex Superior Court in Equity against the adverse action of the Board.

Patrol Supervisors Needed

Applications for School Traffic Patrol Supervisor are still being received at the office of the Town Manager, with closing date for filing set for Friday, October 11. A written examination will be held at the Roman House, Wednesday, October 16, at 11:00 a.m. for all applicants.
